Complexities of Researching with Young People

Edited by Paulina Billett, La Trobe University, Australia, Matt Hart, University of Leicester, UK and Dona Martin, La Trobe University, Australia

Series: Youth, Young Adulthood and Society

Offering a closeup examination of their own research experiences, the authors address the complexities of researching with young people beyond simple questions of protection from harm and coercion by problematising notions of 'resilience', 'participation', 'risk' and 'voice'. This edited collection takes the reader through an exploration of its key themes and in doing so presents a cast of candid and insightful accounts from youth researchers situated within the humanities and social sciences.
