(Inter)Facing Death

Life in Global Uncertainty

Sam Han, University of Western Australia, Australia

Series: Classical and Contemporary Social Theory

(Inter)Facing Death analyzes the nexus of death and digital culture in the contemporary moment in the context of recent developments in social, cultural and political theory. It argues that death today can be thought of as "interfaced," that is mediated and expressed, in various aspects of contemporary life rather than put to the side or overcome as many narratives of modernity have suggested. Employing concepts from anthropology, sociology, media studies and communications, it will appeal to scholars and students of social and political theory, anthropology, sociology and cultural and media studies with interests in death.
